

Break the Boredom

The headline made me giggle: "Local Mom Drops 'Bored' Kids Off At School Three Weeks Early".

The satirical story quoted the exasperated mom: "They have five iPads upstairs, two dirt bikes in the garage and a water slide, and they want to say they're BORED? I don't think so. . . I told them if they said the word 'bored' one more time, they were going to school. I wasn't joking." (From the Babylon Bee)

With backpacks and lunch bags, the three children spent the day on the front steps of their middle school . . . probably bored.

With Liberty Center and Colton UMCs, our church is enjoying our annual Vacation Bible School. Seventy-three children are laughing, playing, and learning, while fifty adult willing servants have survived. . .so far. No boredom is allowed.

Between sports, end of summer vacations, games, toys, and household chores, it is hard to imagine that children could be bored, but if they are, we at Chapel pledge to break the boredom. (I write tongue in cheek as a parent of never-bored children.)

Between now and first day of school, we will plan five exciting worship services and the same number of interesting Sunday School sessions. There will be Family Night at the Rock on August 7th, the fair stand August 9-16, and Junior Hi and Senior Hi youth will begin the last Wednesday 29th.

Bring your bored children (and adults) to Chapel, and we'll break the boredom.

See you Sunday,

Pastor Brad

August 2018

August is upon us! That typically means school starts back up, but because of the construction at the new school, school at LC won't start until September. However, August still does mean that youth group is back! We will be starting YF up on August 29th with a fun day for 7-12th grade students. The week after that, we will settle back into our routine of meeting regularly. I'm super excited to start back up as I feel we really have some momentum built up for this school year. I look forward to new 7th graders coming up to YF and am excited to see what God has in store for us this school year. As we start back up, please join me in praying for the youth of this community and that God works in incredible ways this year.

As much as I'm excited for the school year to start, I am excited for another month of summer. Summer thus far has been a great break from routine. Having less structured programming has allowed me to refresh and recharge and do ministry in some different ways. It's allowed me to build more relationships with students and spend time with them just hanging out. It's also been a great time to prepare for some exciting things coming up next school year. However, part of me is excited to get back into routine and the semi-regular schedule that comes with school starting back up. There are plenty of things I will miss about summer ministry, but a hectic schedule is definitely not one of them. I hope that summer has been refreshing and has recharged you for the next season of life as well!

Have a great August!

Pastor Tom
