

Dear Chapelites,

Fall Has Fallen

It is rare that the date that the seasons change coincides with the weather. Summer ended with a warm, sunny day. The chilly, rainy day that kicked off fall had us scrambling for sweaters and jackets.

I like all four seasons; that's why I live in Ohio. I am a little partial summer and its warm days and outdoor activities, and I am never ready for them to end.

The seasons are ordained by God.

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest

Sun, moon and stars in their courses above

Join with all nature in manifold witness

To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love

Great is Thy faithfulness, great is Thy faithfulness

Morning by morning new mercies I see

All I have needed Thy hand hath provided

Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me

The change of seasons bear witness to God's watch care over creation and his constant presence and strength in our lives.

Some of us experience seasons differently. Some would say that fall began with the first school bell. The beginning of fall came for others when fall school sports began. . .or when the football season started. . .or when baseball holds its fall classic. Still others mark the end of summer when they finish their garden harvest. . .or when their combine leaves their barn and begin harvesting corn and beans.

Some of our seasons have nothing to do with the calendar or community activities. They are much more personal or family oriented in nature. We have all experienced seasons of exuberance and joy. We have all known seasons of sadness and grief.

The Good Book promises, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." (Lamentations 3:22-23)

That passage inspired Thomas Chisholm to write "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." Those verses inspire me to believe that in this current season, God will walk with you and me. His love and mercy will bring enough joy and happy experiences. For the challenges we face in this new season, His love and mercy will be sufficient.

Pray for one another. Pray for healing for those who are ill or hurting.

See you Sunday!

Pastor Brad
